IN MEMORIAM.

NOTE.—The following list includes all the deceased members of the North Indiana Conference since the division of the north half of the State into two Conferences—the North Indiana and the North-west Indiana—in 1852.

From 1844 to 1852, the North Indiana Conference comprised the north half of the State.

The roll is made up from the printed Minutes.

It is greatly to be regretted that greater care has not been observed in the preparation of the Memoirs, several of which fail even to furnish the items necessary to fill the columns below.

This table includes only those who were connected with the Conference at the time of their decease.

A motion that the report lie upon the table was withdrawn.

It was ordered that the report be read seriatim.

The report was then recommitted, with instructions to make it conform to the amendment.

(Signed,) J. E. ERVIN,
F. T. SIMPSON.

The report on Freedmen was read and adopted. (See Report, page 49.)

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That we recognize in the Y. M. C. Association an agency, blessed of God in large measure, in the advancement of the kingdom of Christ among us, in bringing in and enlisting the energies of young men, and others, in this good cause; that we bid them godspeed, and will, as we have opportunity, encourage and co-operate with them.

(Signed,) H. N. BARNES,
H. J. MECK.

The report on Sunday-schools was read, amended, and adopted. (See Report, page 50.)

M. H. Mendenhall offered the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to publish —— copies of the Minutes of this session; that they be sent out to the presiding elders in quantities proportioned to the number of members in full connection; that the presiding elders distribute to the pastors; and that the Minutes be published by Hitchcock & Walden.

2. Resolved, That the pastors settle with the presiding elders at the first quarterly conference after receiving them; and that the presiding elders settle in full with the Secretary, on or before October 1, 1875.

3. Resolved, That the presiding elders be instructed to distribute the Minutes to the pastors immediately upon receiving them, by express, unless otherwise specially directed by the pastors.

4. Resolved, That Hitchcock & Walden be urgently requested to publish the Minutes with all possible dispatch, and that their doing so will be very highly appreciated by our people, both ministers and laity.

Motions to fill the blank in the first resolution with "four thousand" and with "three thousand" were made, and the words "four thousand" inserted, by a vote of 45 to 28.

A motion to reconsider and call the roll to ascertain the number each preacher is willing to take, was laid on the table.

The resolutions were then adopted.

On motion, the Conference decided to hold a temperance anniversary to-night, in the Presbyterian church.

The Journal of this session was read and approved.

The Conference then adjourned.

SIXTH DAY.

TUESDAY MORNING, 8 1-2 o'clock, April 20, 1875.

CONFERENCE met. The devotional services were conducted by L. Roberts, Bishop Bowman in the chair.

The Second Question—"Who are admitted on Trial?"—was taken up.

Charles H. Brown and Chas. M. Wysong, recommended by the West Fort Wayne District Conference; Daniel M. Brown, recommended by the Fort Wayne District Conference; and Tom C Neal, recommended by the Goshen District Conference, were, after the report of the Examining Committee, admitted on trial.

The transfer of A. J. Lyda, of the West Virginia Conference, to this Conference, was announced by the Bishop, and, on motion, and in accordance with his own request, he was granted a location.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint S. N. Campbell agent of the Tract Society and Conference Evangelist.

(Signed,) O. V. LEMON,
M. MAHIN,
E. F. HASTY.

B. Smith was granted a superannuated relation.

S. C. Miller moved that those who are admitted on trial who have not been examined on all the studies be required to bring them up at our next annual session. Adopted.

The Bishop announced the following decisions on questions of Church law:

Is a member of our Church in good standing required to tell his pastor what Church he is going to join in order to get a letter? Yes. The pastor could not otherwise do the duty required of him; namely, to notify the pastor into whose charge the member goes.

Is not a pastor bound to give such a member a letter when it is asked for? Yes, if the member proposes to join another charge in our own Church; not otherwise. THOS. BOWMAN.

An appeal from the following decision of the Presiding Elder of the Richmond District has been presented for review; namely, "The licensing or relicensing of a woman to preach is unauthorized by the Discipline and usage of the Methodist Episcopal Church; consequently the case can not come before the Conference."

The decision is hereby affirmed. THOS. BOWMAN.

M. Mahin appealed from the last decision to the next General Conference.

The Committee to audit the accounts of the Publishing Committee made their report, and it was adopted. (See Report, page 52.)

The Committee to assess the districts for the benevolent collections; on missions; to nominate committees for our next session, and to inquire into the expediency of indicating to our representatives in the several Boards the amounts this Conference will endeavor to raise for Missions, Church Extension, and Freedmen, made their Report, which was adopted. (See Report, page 52.)

The Examining Committees were announced. (See List, page 4.)

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Conference are hereby tendered to the citizens of Elkhart for the very hospitable manner in which we have been entertained during our stay among them, and to the pastors of the different Churches of this city for the hearty welcome extended to the Conference to occupy their pulpits during our sessions. S. N. CAMPBELL.

Rev. Mr. Barr, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Elkhart, made an address, expressing the delight of the citizens of Elkhart with the session of our Conference among them.

The following was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That we express our very high appreciation of the visit of our beloved Bishop Bowman, a member of this Conference at the time of his election to the Episcopacy, and that we thank him for the ability, urbanity, and impartiality which have characterized his presidency over our sessions.

Thanks were extended to the representatives of the press who have reported our proceedings, and to the railroads extending the favor of reduced fare to members of Conference.

A. Greenman moved that we ask no missionary appropriation by the Parent Board for our Conference. Lost.

The Committee on Memoirs reported, and the Report was adopted. (See Report, page 53.)

The action of last year, appointing M. Mahin to preach the Conference Sermon on the occasion of the National Centenary celebration, with M. H. Mendenhall for alternate, was reaffirmed.

The Journal was read and approved.

The closing devotional services were conducted by S. N. Campbell.

The Appointments were read by the Bishop, and the Conference adjourned sine die. The Doxology was sung, and the benediction pronounced by Bishop Bowman.

ON EDUCATION.

INDIANA ASBURY UNIVERSITY.

THE high degree of prosperity so long enjoyed by Asbury University continues unabated.

The graduating class of the past year numbered thirty-five gentlemen and ladies, ten of whom were in the Scientific, and twenty-five in the Classical Department.

The attendance, largely in excess of former years, has been four hundred and fifty-seven, including ninety young ladies.

The Commencement exercises were held in the Chapel of the new College building, the recitation rooms being still in an unfinished state, twenty-five thousand dollars being required to complete them.

The Faculty of the Institution sustain their reputation for thoroughness in instruction and discipline.

As a Conference, we express abiding confidence in their Christian character and ability.

It is proposed that the work of Biblical instruction shall receive increased attention.

This department embraces the Hebrew language, with Old Testament criticism and exegesis; the Greek language, with New Testament criticism and exegesis; Systematic Divinity; Scriptural Archæology, and Homiletics. This comes legitimately within the purview and intent of the founders of the Institution, and accords strictly with the requirements of the Church under whose patronage it has support.

Within the last year, Robt. Stockwell, Esq., of Lafayette, has given twenty-five thousand dollars expressly for this department of instruction.

The financial condition of the University is shown to be as follows:

Value of buildings and grounds	$150,000 00
Endowment fund invested at 10 per cent	77,002 49
" " " " 8 "	3,000 00
" " " " 7 "	54,950 00
" " " " 6 "	3,500 00
Recent endowment of Robt. Stockwell	25,000 00
Total	$313,452 49

We recommend that Rev. S. N. Campbell and Rev. E. F. Hasty be appointed visitors; and that Rev. John E. Earp be appointed Professor of Modern Languages and Hebrew.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

The report of Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute is gratifying, showing increased prosperity.

The influence and usefulness of the Institution are steadily growing.

The Faculty show themselves to be scholarly and Christian gentlemen, highly qualified for their position.

As this Institution is designed to furnish a theological education rather than a literary one, we would join with the board of visitors in recommending to the Quarterly Conferences that they exercise more carefulness in recommending young men to these Halls (having due regard to preliminary education), that embarrassment may not arise in attempting to combine the undisciplined in classes with the well-educated.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. R. D. Robinson, D.D., and Rev. A. A. Brown, as visitors.

FORT WAYNE COLLEGE.

This Institution is situated in the most desirable part of the city of Fort Wayne. The College campus consists of a block of twelve city lots, or a little less than three acres. The building is one hundred and seventy-five feet long in front, with proportional width for solidity and durability, and is four stories high. The foundation is of stone, the walls of brick. Although not in modern architecture, at comparatively small expense the building will present a welcome appearance and afford eligible recitation rooms, literary and lecture halls, for five hundred students, and also accommodate one hundred boarders with healthful study rooms, sleeping apartments, and dining halls. The chapel will seat about one thousand persons. The campus and building are worth for educational purposes about seventy-five thousand dollars.

Males and females are both admitted to the Collegiate, Normal, Commercial, Art, Academic, and Music Departments.

Under a charter granted by the Legislature of the State of Indiana, the trustees are authorized to confer the degrees of honor and merit usually conferred by other first-class Colleges.

The liberal pledges made by the ministers of the Conference during their annual session held at Fort Wayne in April, 1874, are being promptly paid, which enables the trustees to cancel the debts, mortgages, judgments, and executions, which have so long been burdensome. All things considered, the patronage has been encouraging during the past collegiate year, and the young men and young ladies who have been in attendance have been loyal, studious, moral, and many of them devotedly religious. We hereby express our confidence in the ability and efficiency of the Faculty.

Resolved, That we will recommend Fort Wayne College as worthy the patronage of our people.

Resolved, That W. S. Birch, George Breckenridge, and Henry Burgess be re-elected trustees, and that John Studabaker and Joseph A. Funk be elected trustees to fill vacancies; and that E. Holdstock, Nerr H. Phillips, and A. Marine be appointed visitors.

Resolved, That we hereby request the bishop to appoint R. D. Robinson President of the College.

Resolved, That should the trustees employ an agent during the ensuing Conference year to solicit funds for the endowment of the College, we will welcome him into our charges and co-operate with him in his work.

Resolved, That during the Centennial celebration of American Independence we will encourage our congregations and Sunday schools to contribute one hundred thousand dollars toward the permanent endowment of the College.

Resolved, That the Conference recommend the board of trustees to allow any one contributing fifty thousand dollars the right to name the College.

We recommend the re-adoption of the resolution of last year's report, as follows:

That the second day in June, as "Childrens' Day," be observed in the interest of our general educational enterprises; also, that a committee, consisting of the presiding elder of Fort Wayne District and the pastors of Berry and Wayne Street Churches, be appointed to confer with the Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education in regard to the appropriation of money in aid of young men preparing for the ministry.

A. A. BROWN, Chairman.

CLARK SKINNER, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

YOUR Committee, to whom was referred the interests of the freedmen, submit the following as their report:

We believe no enterprise of the Church commends itself more justly to the sympathy and benevolence of the people than the cause of the freedmen. We have read, with painful regret, the appeal of the Corresponding Secretary of this Society, stating the fact that during the past few months our receipts have been less than one-half of our expenditures. Nevertheless, we are encouraged on our part. We find the total amount paid by this Conference last year to be three hundred and seventy-two dollars and ninety-seven cents. The amount paid this year is six hundred and sixty-one dollars and sixty-five cents,—making an increase of two hundred and eighty-eight dollars and sixty-eight cents. We are glad to note the manifest growth of interest in this cause, and still commend it to our people as in every way worthy of their sympathy and support.

1. Resolved, That we accept the apportionment made to this Conference of eighteen hundred dollars, and request the presiding elders to distribute the same to the various districts.

2. Resolved, That we will take our collections for this object in the month of September, and forward the amounts received at once to the Treasurer of the Society.

S. J. M'ELWEE.

ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

WE submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we use every effort to make our Sunday-schools more efficient.

2. That we recommend the Sunday-school Journal and the Berean Lesson Leaves in all our Sunday-schools.

3. That we recommend, first of all, the use of our own Sunday-school literature, as best adapted to our wants.

4. That we advise the holding of Sunday-school conventions in all our districts.

A. G. M'CARTER,
W. R. JORDAN.

TRACT CAUSE.

WE learn from the report of the Corresponding Secretary that this department of our Church work is progressing. New tracts have been added to the list, and some old plates destroyed, so that in its steady advancement it is worthy of the support of the whole Church.

But from the reports from our several charges we find that the aggregate collection for the cause is considerably below that of last year, and also that there has not been a general distribution of our tracts. Believing, as we do, in the efficiency of this method for spreading everywhere the truth, we recommend it to all as a friend and helper in Evangelical labor.

A. H. NAFTZGER,
A. W. LAMPORT.

ON TEMPERANCE.

GOD rules—the right shall prevail—"the morning cometh." Clouds and darkness are now round about him, yet justice and judgment are the habitation of his throne. The principles of total abstinence and prohibition were never stronger than now in the hearts of the American people. The seeming defeats of temperance legislation have but united and strengthened the friends of temperance. The destruction of the Baxter Law was not an unforeseen result. When properly considered, it is in no way discouraging.

A square temperance issue, divested of party prejudice and corruption, would be sustained by a vast majority of the American people. But it is evident beyond question that a strong and ever active sentiment must be created and sustained—such, too, as can not be secured without well organized and persevering efforts. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That, in the future we will, by divine help, be more bold, united, hopeful, thorough, and persevering in all our toils for the triumphs of temperance.

2. That, while we favor all moral and Christian forms of organization and effort—particularly the "Woman's National Temperance Union"—we will endeavor to become more and more thorough and persevering in our efforts to properly mold and direct the sentiment of the youth of the land.

3. That we are unchangeably in favor of the thorough and absolute prohibition of the manufacture, sale, use, and importation, as a beverage, of intoxicating liquors, the same as arsenic, and other destructive poisons.

4. That we again assert it to be the sentiment of this Conference, that we request the General Conference to so change our Book of Discipline, as to make the sale and use, as a beverage, of intoxicating liquors, "immoral," and not simply "imprudent," conduct, as it is at the present time.

5. That we will not use, or allow to be used, intoxicating wine in the administration of the Lord's-supper.

6. That we are more than ever convinced that we must, in all our plans and labors, trust in the power and guidance of the Almighty, in the name of the Redeemer, for success in this great work.

7. That, in harmony with the plan adopted by the last National Temperance Convention, held at Saratoga Springs, August 26–27, 1873, we appoint a committee of seven to represent this Conference in the next National Temperance Convention, to be held in the city of Chicago, commencing June 1, 1875.

ON MISSIONS.

THE Committee on Missions recommend the establishment of the following missions, with the accompanying appropriations: Fort Wayne District—Ninth Ward, $100; West Fort Wayne District—Centenary, $100; Goshen District—Bremen, $200; Logansport District—West Logan, $100; Richmond District—Raysville, $100.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

THE undersigned, having examined the receipts and disbursements of the Committee for Publishing the Minutes of North Indiana Conference, for the past year, as presented by M. H. Mendenhall, find that the accounts have been correctly kept, the business safely and judiciously managed, and that the amount remaining in the hands of said Committee is seventy-seven dollars and fifty-one cents.

BIBLE CAUSE.

THE Bible is the means by which men and nations are to be enlightened. It is the ground of our faith, hope, and joy. It is that by which those who sit in the valley of the shadow of death are to be brought to light. It is man's only sure guide in the path of duty, righteousness, and peace. And, inasmuch as the American Bible Society has undertaken to put the Bible into every family in America, and, eventually, in the whole world; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That this Society deserves and shall receive our cordial support, both in raising funds and in the distribution of its Bibles.

2. That we will endeavor to impress on our people the importance of a careful and prayerful study of God's Word in the Sabbath-school, the family, and the closet.

We have duly considered the resolution referred to us directing us to inquire into the expediency of indicating to our representative on the Board of Missions the amount we would endeavor to raise for the support of Missions, and report that we do not deem it expedient to make any representation on the subject, and that we do not regard our assessment as more than our people can and ought to give.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MEMOIRS.

REV. G. S. JENKINS.

GEORGE S. JENKINS, eldest son of John and Francis Jenkins, was born in Frederic County, Virginia, February 16, 1832, and died October 27, 1874, of inflammation of the bowels. His parents were members of the Presbyterian Church, and reared their son in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. February 16, 1854, he was married to Miss Hannah E. Guinn. In October, 1856, he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was happily converted; was appointed class-leader before his probation expired, proving earnest and efficient. Six months after, he was licensed to exhort. In 1863 he was licensed as a local preacher; in which capacity he served the Master and Church about four years. He was employed as a supply on the Lewisville Circuit in 1865. He labored on that work with a good degree of success one year. After which he labored on the Spartansburg work one year as a supply. In the Spring of 1867 he was admitted into the North Indiana Conference on trial, and reappointed to Spartansburg for 1867–8. In 1869 he was received into full connection, and appointed to Alexandria Circuit for 1869, '70, '71; Elwood, 1872. He was next appointed to the New Corner Circuit, where he labored for eighteen months before his death. He was ordained deacon, April 17, 1867; and elder April 16, 1871. As a minister, he was consecrated, faithful, studious, fearless, and industrious; as a preacher, practical, clear, and pointed. In spirit he was cheerful, walking by faith. In revival efforts he was successful. In his ten years of itinerant life he received nearly one thousand persons into the Church on probation. He kept an account of the number of miles he traveled, which averaged three thousand per year, or thirty thousand miles in ten years. In all life's relations he showed himself a man. His end was peaceful. When informed that he must die, without any excitement he expressed himself entirely resigned. When asked the state of his mind, he said, "Not a cloud overshadows my spiritual skies. All is well!" He was conscious to the last, exhorting all present to be faithful. He sent a message to his brethren at Conference to be faithful, and not forget him, but to meet him in the better land. Without a struggle, his soul took its flight to the mansions above.

MRS. MARY BRADSHAW.

MRS. MARY BRADSHAW, wife of Rev. J. W. Bradshaw, a superannuated minister of the North Indiana Conference, and daughter of John and Hannah Ferrel, departed this life in Warsaw, Indiana, November 20, 1874. She was born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, September 14, 1804. April 13, 1827, she was united in marriage with her now bereaved husband. The same year she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the year 1841, she with her husband entered the itinerant ranks. She cheerfully journeyed with her husband while he was in active itinerant life, and was to him a great comfort and help, having at all times a word of encouragement, and ever taking hopeful views of their surroundings. She was a devoted Christian lady. She dearly loved the doctrines and usages of the Church of her choice, and was a faithful student of God's Word. For many years she read her Bible through once a year. The last year of her life, though greatly afflicted, so much so that she could not hold her Bible at times, but placing it on a chair before her, she read it through twice. Her last testimony was: "I am talking with my Savior." After several years of affliction, she passed away peacefully and quietly, to rest with Jesus, "which is far better." May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, that sustained her so long, be the support and consolation of him who survives her, and now walks alone in the path of life.
